The Senate's Campaign to Privatize Our Prisons Continues In Wednesday's Budget Committee

The Florida Legislature is back at its' old games of putting you and your family's safety at risk. The prison privatization bill (SB 2038), is being rushed through by Governor Rick Scott and the Legislative leadership in an attempt to silence Floridians' right to participate in Democracy. Last week this bill was rushed through a 45 minute meeting only to be rushed through the Senate Rules Committee yesterday and now SB 2038 will be heard in the Senate Budget Committee tomorrow (Wednesday)!

This bill will:

- Eliminate thousands of jobs!
- Risk public safety by turning over prison security to the lowest bidder!
- Eliminate accountability for prison administration!

The big out-of-state special interests who are pushing for the passing of SB 2038 gave huge campaign contributions to politicians and their allies in Tallahassee. This is a clear attempt by the Legislature to return the favor by putting your family's safety at risk so private contractors can make huge profits off of your tax dollars.

CALL THE MEMBERS OF THE SENATE BUDGET COMMITTEE NOW!

THE COMMITTEE MEETING IS TOMORROW AT 1PM! MAKE THE CALL NOW!

Tell the members in the Senate Budget Committee "NOT to be a rubber stamp for Governor Scott. Tell them to protect your community and all Floridians, NOT line the pockets of contractors and political donors. Tell them that privatization doesn't solve the problems facing Florida's working families."
